This classic comedy CD is a great addition to my collection. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Burns and Allen DVD set By DJMZ If you remember or have heard about this spontaneous couple please buy this DVD. As has been said Gracie his wife had to be pretty dog gone smart to play such a dumb part! Enjoy I did! 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Three Stars By Linda Dixon Recording is not that clear.

While George Burns and Gracie Allen were uproariously funny on stage, screen and television, radio was - and remains - the preeminent showcase for their comedic talents. Here you'll find 20 digitally remastered and restored radio episodes, including some available here for the first time anywhere, featuring big name guest stars like Cary Grant, Ray Milland, Hedy Lamarr, Charles Boyer, Ida Lupino, Bing Crosby, Cesar Romero and more! Aiding and abetting the stars was a top-notch supporting cast that included announcer-sidekick Bill Goodwin, bashful bandleader Meredith Willson, and rascally regulars Hans Conried, Mel Blanc, Elvia Allman, Joseph Kearns, Bea Benaderet, Arthur Q. Bryan, Paula Winslowe, Verna Felton and Gale Gordon. Burns, Allen, and the crme de la crme of Hollywood talent will have you doubled over in laughter, enjoying one of the true delights of Radio's Golden Age.

About the Author George Burns was born in Boston, Massachusetts, raised in Maine, and is admitted to practice in Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and New York. After practicing commercial, corporate, and securities law with Nixon, Hargrave, Devans Doyle (now Nixon Peabody) in Rochester, New York, he moved back to Maine and began his litigation practice. In 1980, George and another partner started the law firm Burns, Ray, DeLano, Macdonald, which merged with Bernstein Shur in 2001. George's concentration is on litigation and arbitration of business and construction disputes. He is a member of the firm's Construction and Litigation Practice Groups, and its Dispute Resolution Group. For over twenty-five years, he has assisted clients in the forest products industry, and represents several trade associations devoted to that industry, including the Northeastern Retail Lumber Association, the Northeastern Lumber Manufacturers Association, and the National Lumber and Building Materials and Dealers Association.
