Martin, Douglas, Carolyn, Arthur, and occasionally Herc, a flying piano, a terrifying cat, or otters make this amazing BBC programme. The level of humour is combined with plights that everyone can relate with. Sure, we may not be able to understand the terror of a bird strike, but getting 'enough wrong ends of the stick to make the entire wrong end of the forest', wondering about dating, or even playing cheerful word games amongst friends... How could this radio programme go wrong? I highly recommend this to any fan of BBC Radio Comedy, any fan of Stephanie Cole/Roger Allam/Benedict Cumberbatch/John Finnemore, or anyone who really just needs a laugh. Brilliant series. A major hit. 6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. British radio comedy at its best By Skymom Wonderfully written comedy with a terrific cast. The characters are quite funny, and there are loads of little verbal gems in each episode. I listen to these in my car as I shuttle my kids around, and even my 16-year-old son enjoys them. ETA: my son downloaded Season 4 for me, as a Mother's Day present, and it continues to delight all of us. The disks are passed back and forth between our two cars and we have begun, nerdily enough, to employ Pressurized expressions around the house. "I carried the sheep, I climbed the tree..." or "Fizz buzz..." It's been ages since we all enjoyed the same entertainment, so it's really a winner! 5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Brilliant British Comedy! By luuluu I love everything about this show. This is British comedy at its best. It is very family friendly and it still makes me laugh. Martin, Douglas, Arthur, and Carolyn "put the excitement into air travel, sometimes too much so." Cabin Pressure follows the outrageous jobs they will take in order to keep the airline afloat. There are cats, otters, and polar bears as well as an old drunk rich man and a bassoonist that thinks they are trying to kill her. If I'm ever having a bad day, I just have to listen to an episode of Cabin Pressure and I start feeling better.

Cabin Pressure is set in the wing and a prayer world of a tiny, one-plane charter airline; staffed by two pilots, one on his way down, and one who was never up to start with. Whether flying a cat to Abu Dhabi, dealing with a nervous bassoonist, hunting for a cleverly-hidden lemon or attempting to celebrate Christmas in seven minutes, no job is too small, but many, many jobs are too difficult. Carolyn Knapp-Shappey, MJN Airs formidable boss, has employed two of the very cheapest pilots money can buy: Captain Martin Crieff, whos always wanted to fly and wont let a little thing like lack of ability stop him, and First Officer Douglas Richardson, smooth-voiced old sky-god and eternal schemer. Passenger service is provided by the relentlessly cheery Arthur, proud inventor of both Surprising Rice and his own hat. Written by John Finnemore (John Finnemores Souvenir Programme, The Now Show), Cabin Pressure stars Stephanie Cole as Carolyn, Benedict Cumberbatch as Martin, Roger Allam as Douglas, and John Finnemore as Arthur. ... a diamond in radios crown - Gillian Reynolds, Daily Telegraph. 10 CDs. 8 hrs 50 mins.
