Unrelenting suspense, superb ensemble acting, realistic sound effects, and original music: These are the hallmarks of Cape Cod Radio Mystery Theater, the acclaimed series that has garnered legions of devoted fans among public radio listeners nationwide. Created by award-winning writer/producer/director Steven Thomas Oney, Cape Cod Radio Mystery Theater follows in the grand tradition of shows such as The Shadow from the golden age of radio. It uses the medium's most powerful property—the unique imagination of the individual listener—to present spine-tingling contemporary thrillers. Volume II in the series contains three full-length dramatizations: "The Legacy of Euriah Pillar," a Captain Waverly Underhill mystery; "The Hypnotist," a chilling tale of dread; and "Mr. Hugo's Night to Remember," a mystery lampoon recorded live.

About the Author STEVEN THOMAS ONEY, creator, writer, and Edgar Award-winning producer of Cape Cod Radio Mystery Theater, is reviving the "lost art" of radio drama. He has earned accolades from the International Radio Festival and grants from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting and the National Endowment for the Arts. He lives on Cape Cod.
