

(Free) Car Talk: Born Not to Run: More Disrespectful Car Songs

Car Talk: Born Not to Run: More Disrespectful Car Songs

Tom Magliozzi, Ray Magliozzi

Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks*

Download

Read Online

#910756 in Books 2004-05-10 2004-05-10 Formats: Abridged, Audiobook, CD Original language: English PDF # 1 5.30 x 11.18 x 6.40l, .21 Running time: 3600 seconds Binding: Audio CD | File size: 19.Mb

Tom Magliozzi, Ray Magliozzi : Car Talk: Born Not to Run: More Disrespectful Car Songs before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Car Talk: Born Not to Run: More Disrespectful Car Songs:

4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Not what I thought
By A. Martinez I love the show, I hate the CD. I expected to hear some of the clever songs that I heard on the radio show. Instead, I heard some random, not-very-clever songs that I never heard of. Save your money. Not worth it even if its free.
3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. The first Car Tunes is a touch act to follow
By nisto This second volume of Car Tunes is just not nearly as good as the first one. The first is outstanding from the first tine to the last!
0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Wat a chuckle - get this CD
By Hebe Martin How can you go wrong with Car Talk? This CD really helps to make long car trips enjoyable. If you enjoy listening to Car Talk on NPR get this CD and be prepared to laugh!

Born Not to Run is a collection of car tunes as irreverent as they are melodic. With titles like, "If She Wasn't On Blocks," "Who Taught These Idiots To Drive," and "Built to Crash," we guarantee that you'll be simultaneously tapping your toes, laughing out loud and shaking your head. For these reasons, we ask that you not listen to Born Not to Run and drive at the same time. More fun from Click and Clack, the Tappet Brothers.

About the Author Tom and Ray Magliozzi, a.k.a. Click and Clack, the Tappet Brothers, are the hosts of NPR's Car Talk, a syndicated weekly call-in program broadcast nationwide to more than 600 stations and heard by over 3.3 million listeners. Winner of the Peabody Award, Car Talk has been providing advice on everything from car repair to marriage since 1977. Tom and Ray Magliozzi, a.k.a. Click and Clack, the Tappet Brothers, are the hosts of NPR's Car Talk, a syndicated weekly call-in program broadcast nationwide to more than 600 stations and heard by over 3.3 million listeners. Winner of the Peabody Award, Car Talk has been providing advice on everything from car repair to marriage since 1977.