Claude Debussy, Music Scores : Cello Sonata, Violin Sonata and Sonata for Flute, Viola and Harp (Dover Chamber Music Scores) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Cello Sonata, Violin Sonata and Sonata for Flute, Viola and Harp (Dover Chamber Music Scores):

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Great! By muse4ik This is an accurate and affordable edition of some truly great pieces of music. If you study music, or just find it more enjoyable to listen while you read along, then this is for you.

This volume contains Debussy's last three chamber works, written between 1915 and 1917, all of them sonatas of individual charm and distinctive twentieth-century character. Debussy described his Cello Sonata, rich in its unconventional, sometimes surrealistic effects, as "Pierrot angry at the moon." The Violin Sonata integrates jazz influences with Debussy's customary impressionism. Of the Sonata for Flute, Viola and Harp, a work sparkling with spontaneity and innovation, Debussy commented, "I don't know whether it should move us to laughter or to tears. Perhaps both." All three of these frequently performed and recorded works are reprinted from authoritative French editions.
