From Hal Leonard : Chicago: The Musical (Broadway Vocal Selections) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Chicago: The Musical (Broadway Vocal Selections):

The Book Of One Of Broadway's Best By Stephen Fruchtman Kander and Ebb, who wrote the lyrics and music to this as well as Cabaret, Steel Pier and many others, are two of the most talented in the profession. Chicago is my second favorite musical, losing out to Kander and Ebb's dramatic work Cabaret. Chicago is the darkest, funniest musical. The lyrics are cynical and the music is catchy. Particularly good is the song sung by the character Mary Sunshine called "A Little Bit Of God" which is the only optimistic song in the score and is very much so, being so sacchrine that it's funny. Another favorite of mine is "Mr. Cellophane," which, when sung right, can be hilarious and, when cohreographed correctly, is even moreso. The score is perfect in my mind.

"And that's good, isn't it great, isn't it fun..." it sure is. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great collection of songs from Chicago By MJones This was exactly what I expected when ordering: a collection of the most popular songs from Chicago. Nice quality. No complaints. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Fosse Fan By Nicole Elizabeth Popkow I'm a regular Bob Fosse Fan. I believe everything he touches turns to gold, so this definitely is golden. The music pieces are one of a kind... "Nowadays", "Foxy Roxy", ... "All That Jazz". If you are looking for a vocal selection to sing for any reason, this has a WIDE variety of songs for Men And Women. It'll "Razzle Dazzle" YOU . . .

(Vocal Selections). Our Broadway Vocal Selections book features a dozen fantastic songs from this Kander Ebb blockbuster: All I Care About * And All That Jazz * Class * Funny Honey * A Little Bit of Good * Me and My Baby * Mister Cellophane * My Own Best Friend * Nowadays * Razzle Dazzle * Roxie * When You're Good to Mama.
