Alan Walker : Chihuahua Nine-Letter Word Puzzles Volume 2 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Chihuahua Nine-Letter Word Puzzles Volume 2:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Nine-Letter Bran TeasersBy Mermaid LadyI have been searching high and low for these puzzles sing returning from t trip to Nova Scotia, Canada. While on vacation, I would begin my day by doing these deceptively simple puzzles that were published in one of the local newspapers. The premise is simple- using the nine letters within the puzzle, create as many words as you can that use the letter in the center of the grid. At least one of the words has to have nine letters. These puzzles are quite addictive- I would compete with other people on the tour to see who could find the most words! I definitely recommend this set of puzzles for anyone who is a fan of Scrabble, Jumble puzzles, or crossword puzzles.

Another 100 nine-letter word-finding puzzles. See how many words of at least four letters you can make from an array of nine letters. The letter in the middle must be used in every word, and at least one word can be made that uses all the letters. Each puzzle has targets for how many words you find. Good, Better and Best can be reached with well-known words. Two higher target levels require some more obscure words. You decide which target to aim for. All possible words are listed in the Solution section. The second in a series derived from the popular Chihuahua Puzzle website.
