Barry Monush, John Willis : Screen World: 2000 Film Annual: Volume 51 Expanded Format With Over 1,000 Photographs before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Screen World: 2000 Film Annual: Volume 51 Expanded Format With Over 1,000 Photographs:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Volume 51By William G. RatcliffeTracing all of the releases of 1999, this superb book of films released that year is a perfect resource for those who enjoy film. Tracing the best and most popular, to the most obscure. Including pictures of most of the films released that year, including "The Sixth Sense", "The Green Mile", and one of my favorites "Anna And The King". Superbly sectioned by release by year, Foreign films, etc. A perfect companion to the previous books in this series.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy T. G. QuinnJust what I wanted. Thanks!

(Screen World). John Willis' Screen World , since 1949, has been the essential, comprehensive pictorial and statistical record of each year's movie season. Volume 51 provides an illustrated listing of American and foreign films released in the United States in 1999, all documented with more than 1,000 photographs. The 2000 edition of Screen World includes such notable movies as American Beauty, Austin Powers: The Spy Who Shagged Me, Being John Malkovich, The Blair Witch Project, Boys Don't Cry, The Cider House Rules, The Green Mile, The Hurricane, The Insider, The Sixth Sense, Star Wars Episode I: The Phantom Menace , and hundreds more. As always, Screen World 's outstanding features include photographic stills and complete credits from the films, biographical notes on selected individuals, full-page shots of Academy Award-winning actors, and a look at the year's most promising new screen personalities.
