STILL AN ESSENTIAL ITEMBy Anthony McGillVolume 55 continues the high standard set by John Willis and now Barry Monush, of this long running series of film annuals. There is nothing quite like this yearly publishing event with its listing of every movie release of the year. Extensive cast lists and credits make this an easy and essential reference guide. The biographical data is always fun to peruse and the obituary list always interesting, but also a little sad as we discover the losses of the year. Black and white photos could have been reproduced a little better but in In this edition there is an excellent 14 page color section plus a nice cover design.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. A Must for ALL Movie Buffs.....By Ronald W. GlassI have been buying and collecting John Willis' Screen World's since 1980...and have to say that they are a MUST for any film buffs book collection. Screen World comes out once a year, and is like an annual Year Book full of pictures, a listing of all of the previous years movies, who starred in them, important facts about the movie...an info section about current celebrities; such as name, date of birth. My favorite section is placed at the end of the book, which lists all of the current stars who passed away the previous year. This book is very informative and I truly recommend it to all who really enjoy movies. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. excellent source

Since I have the full set of this series (in one form or another) I couldn't resist getting this one, the latest. The internet has made research much easier, but it's still nice to have some books in your hands. This is one. The quality this time is as fine as that of all the other years. Does anyone else have a collection of all years?

(Screen World). Movie fans eagerly await each year's new edition of Screen World, the definitive record of the cinema since 1949. Volume 55 provides an illustrated listing of every American and foreign film released in the United States in 2003, all documented with more than 1,000 photographs. The 2004 edition of Screen World features such notable films as Peter Jackson's The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King, which won all 11 Academy Awards it was nominated for, including Best Picture, tying a record; Clint Eastwood's Mystic River, which won Academy Awards for Best Actor Sean Penn and Best Supporting Actor Tim Robbins; Sofia Coppola's Lost in Translation, Academy Award-winner for Best Original Screenplay; and Peter Weir's Master and Commander: The Far Side of the World. Also featured are Patty Jenkins' Monster, featuring Academy Award-winner for Best Actress Charlize Theron, and independent successes such as Gurinder Chadha's Bend It Like Beckham and Tom McCarthy's The Station Agent. As always, Screen World's outstanding features include: photographic stills and shots of the four Academy Award-winning actors as well as all acting nominees; a look at the year's most promising new screen personalities; complete filmographies cast and characters, credits, production company, date released, rating and running time; and biographical entries a priceless reference for over 2,400 living stars, including real name, school, and date and place of birth. Now featuring 16 pages of color photos!
