The 13 screenwriters gathered together in this book are world-class storytellers, whose skill at delineating plot and capturing character make them internationally renowned and respected. The contributors speak directly to the reader, allowing a rare insight into the creative process of the screenwriter. The interviews are illustrated with script excerpts, hand-written notes, storyboards, film stills, and photographs from the screenwriters' own personal collections. Film-making is all about telling stories. While the director is the person responsible for pulling all the aspects of film-making together, the screenwriter creates the backbone of the film; suggesting location, forming and sustaining plot and devising and building character. The screenwriters in this book come from the US, Ireland, Poland, Italy, Japan, France, Germany, and Canada. In-dept interviews with world-renown screenwriters about the craft Full-color, oversized book with 450 color photographs A show and tell of how words on the page transform into action on film

"...this volume lives up to its promise to "unravel" the language of screenwriting...Highly recommended." S.B. DeMasi, Suffolk County Community College.
