Mr. Gerald Rodney Nall : Senior Readers Theatre, Scripts and Skits before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Senior Readers Theatre, Scripts and Skits:

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. some good lesson plans are includedBy Cynthia BowerThe book is a little too detailed for the project I am working with. However, some good lesson plans are included, and the scripts that are provided will be of good use for my class with senior (elders) participants.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. One StarBy S. TaylorVery poorly written and only for two characters, one man and one woman. Misleading title. Stay away.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Old people complaining a lot is not very good theatre in and of itselfBy anthony romanoThese plays are banal and hackneyed. Old people complaining a lot is not very good theatre in and of itself.

Ten minute skits. This book consists of fourteen skits and short one act plays, large print, perfect for Readers Theatre. These skits are situation comedies from ever day life that can trigger laughter and perhaps some tears about life as we live it.

About the AuthorRodney has worked since the age of fourteen and after retiring he was looking for something to keep him busy. He discovered a new SISC Senior Theatre and was soon hooked. A couple of years later he started SISC Readers Theatre and hasn't slowed up since. He started writing for fun and now writes daily.
