Think I would have enjoyed the book more in hardcover as the photographs don't translate as well in the mass market edition.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Love the movieBy SusanLove the movie, but the diaries part was short and you get the feeling that it was HEAVILY edited and sanitized for publication. Save your money.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Wonderful!By Bettina HooperI'm not a 'fan' of anything but I do love Ang Lee's "Sense and Sensibility". I think it's one of the great cinematic achievements and have seen it so many times, I know much of the dialog. Emma Thompson's book is a wonderful appendix to the work!(now if only someone would do the same for Fight Club and Bridge on the River Kwai)

Bringing Jane Austen's Sense and Sensibility to the screen was a labor of love for writer/actress Emma Thompson. Featuring the complete award-winning script, Sense and Sensibility: The Screenplay Diaries also showcases Thompson's unreserved, often hilarious diaries that capture the unique experience of making this film. Her rare and personal perspective makes this an irresistible book for students of film and Austen devotees, as well as for everyone who loved this extraordinary movie. This Newmarket Shooting Script Book includes: The complete screenplay Emma Thompson's diaries written during the film's production Introduction by producer Lindsay Doran More than 50 photos, including stills, cast photos, and behind-the-scenes shots Full cast and crew credits

A rare treat for those interested in the process of developing a first-rate movie from a classic novel. -- Ellen Myrick, Book Page Grandly entertaining... Emma Thompson proves as crisp and indispensably clever a screenwriter as she is a leading lady. -- Janet Maslin, The New York Times [A] fascinating journal of making the film. -- Jack Kroll, Newsweek About the Author Emma Thompson won her second Oscar for her screenplay adaptation of Sense and Sensibility (she won the Academy Award for Best Actress for Howard's End). Named by Time magazine as one of its 2004 European Heroes, she was recently appointed to the United Nations Global Coalition on Women and AIDS.
