Stephen King : Stephen King Goes to the Movies before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Stephen King Goes to the Movies:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Excellent production By Gilbert Huey Some reviewers have complained that this book is composed of stories that have appeared previously. True. Some complain that Stephen

King's commentaries before each story are brief. True again. Many complain that the book is expensive, and it is. So, is this limited edition from Subterranean Press worth what it's priced? Absolutely! The quality of the book is amazing. This is not your average trade or mass-market production. The Vincent Chong movie posters created especially for this edition are incredible. If you are a Stephen King fan and collector you need 'Stephen King Goes to the Movies' on your shelves. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Charles Cushwa Received in excellent condition. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Customer Great book

Stephen King revisits five of his favorite short stories that have been turned into films: The Shawshank Redemption (based on the novella "Rita Hayworth and the Shawshank Redemption") was nominated for seven Academy Awards, including Best Picture and best actor for Morgan Freeman. 1408 starred John Cusack and Samuel L. Jackson and was a huge box office success in 2007. The short story "Children of the Corn" was adapted into the popular Children of the Corn. The Mangler was inspired by King's loathing for laundry machines from his own experience working in a laundromat. Hearts in Atlantis (based on "Low Men in Yellow Coats," the first part of the novel Hearts in Atlantis) starred Anthony Hopkins. This collection features new commentary and introductions to all of these stories in a treasure-trove of movie trivia.

About the Author Stephen King is the author of more than fifty books, all of them worldwide bestsellers. His recent work includes Sleeping Beauties (co-written with his son Owen King), End of Watch, the short story collection The Bazaar of Bad Dreams, Finders Keepers, Mr. Mercedes (an Edgar Award winner for Best Novel and now an ATN Audience Network original television series), Doctor Sleep, and Under the Dome. His novel 11/22/63 a recent Hulu original television series event was named a top ten book of 2011 by The New York Times Book and won the Los Angeles Times Book Prize for Mystery/Thriller as well as the Best Hardcover Book Award from the International Thriller Writers. His epic works The Dark Tower and It are the basis for major motion pictures. He is the recipient of the 2014 National Medal of Arts and the 2003 National Book Foundation Medal for Distinguished Contribution to American Letters.
