From Highbridge Audio : The Adventures of Guy Noir: Radio Private Eye before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Adventures of Guy Noir: Radio Private Eye:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good but By J. Bradford Short. Only five stories. All good but not much material
1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. A good listen if you like the radio. By Mike Cummings Lots of fun from the folks at Prairie Home Companion.
14 of 14 people found the following review helpful. These ARE from the radio show By Kevin Lauderdale I don't know what CD the below reviewers are reviewing, but The "Adventures of Guy Noir : Radio Private Eye" contains actual, full episodes of "Guy Noir" from PHC -- guest stars, audience laughing, everything. If you like it on the radio show, then this is for you because it's from the radio show.

Grammy Award Nominee!" A dark night in a city that knows how to keep its secrets. . . . But on the 12th Floor of the Acme Building, one man is still trying to find the answers to life's persistent questions: Guy Noir, Private eye." This all-new collection of Guy Noir episodes follows the intrepid detective as he solves cases no other gumshoe would touch. Garrison Keillor's private eye spoof thrills audiences every week on live public radio broadcasts of a A Prairie Home Companion. Now take Guy Noir home and enjoy an intelligent, unusualbut always funnyspin on the classic detective genre.

About the AuthorGARRISON KEILLOR is Americas favorite storyteller. For more than 35 years, as the host of A Prairie Home Companion, he has captivated millions of listeners with his weekly News from Lake Wobegon monologues. A Prairie Home Companion is heard on hundreds of public radio stations, as well as America One, the Armed Forces Networks, Sirius Satellite Radio, and via a live audio webcast.Keillor is also the author of several books and a frequent contributor to national publications including Time, The New Yorker, and National Geographic, in addition to writing his own syndicated column. He has been awarded a National Humanities Medal from the National Endowment of the Humanities. When not touring, he resides in St. Paul, Minnesota.
