Containing over six decades of dramatic storylines, touching moments and humorous encounters from the worlds longest-running radio drama, The Ambridge Chronicles is packed with tales from the lives of characters past and present; of marriages and births, loves and losses, triumph and disaster, and charming vignettes of village life. Through original script extracts you can learn how to stook corn with Dan Archer, 1950s style; discover why Jennifer got drawn back into an affair with her ex-husband, Roger, and relive the time when the village was scandalized by an exploding marrow. Discover a lifetime of stories including much-loved characters Phil and Jill Archer, Nelson and Walter Gabriel, Mrs. P and Nigel Pargetter, as well as the irrepressible Grundys, wayward Brian Aldridge, one-woman whirlwind Lynda Snell, pigman-and-milkman Jazzer, and many more. With beautiful drawings throughout, The Ambridge Chronicles takes you into the world of The Archers as never before.
