Brilliant Comedy!By A CustomerBob Elliott and Ray Goulding were a pair of brilliant and all too little-known comedians who came out of the golden age of radio. Their comedy was quite simply an endless satire of radio broadcasting itself. Actually, "comedians" sounds too obvious for their deadpan, parodistic humor - I think perhaps "comic artists" is more appropriate. Instead of telling jokes, this comedic duo performed little plays where humor is created through characterization, irony, and word-play. This is verbal wit and high comedy at its best. Bob and Ray were too subtle to ever become really popular, but they always had a small and devoted following. Their dry, offbeat humor is impossible to adequately describe - you have to experience it to understand it. This award-winning compilation comes from the twilight of their long career - the 1980's. These particular performances come from Bob and Ray's Public Radio Show, and were recorded in front of a live audience, which only adds to the fun. There are dozens of B R sketches here, including numerous installments of their hilarious mock-soap opera, "Garish Summit". Many classic B R characters make apperances. Buy these cassettes and be prepared to become delirious with laughter!4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. "The Best of Bob Ray" Is Simply the Best!By K. MoreyBob and Ray's low-key humor is perfect for long drives. I have the four volumes of "The Best of Bob Ray." Each volume has four audiocassettes, each audiocassette with two 30-minute shows that will keep you in stitches and make the miles fly. "Garish Summit" is without a doubt the greatest soap opera ever to make you laugh so hard your nose runs. Volume 1 will have you longing for Wing Po, Traveling Philosopher, to come by and read your woodpile.

Features Wally Ballou's Man on the Street interview; Biff Burns in the Sports Room; Garish Summit; Dining Out with Bob Ray and many, many other Bob Ray gems. Recorded before a live audience. 4 cassettes, 4 hours.
