Quantity vs. QualityBy RebeloutionVThis book was, from what I thought, written for violin, yet many of the songs are ridden with rests, sometimes for many measures in a row. The songs, in the beginning at least, are very simplified and written in what I assume the editor considered to be "violin-friendly" keys - some of them were unrecognizable in their written arrangements. That being said, once you read through the book, there are quite a few songs that are both playable and well-arranged, but it was entirely frustrating for me to have selected this book instead of the other option I had in mind, or just taking the time to transpose more songs to paper by hand. This book is useful if you don't mind not being true to the original and have some kind of accompaniment, but it may not be as useful to someone who just wants a little help in playing the classic Beatles songs they're already familiar with but may not know well enough to play by ear. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Great book for violin By Abigail Howd Great book for violin! I just started playing a couple of months ago, and it was easy enough that I could play through a decent number of the songs while being difficult enough to provide room for growth. However, I have a musical background so I'm not learning to read music for the first time in addition to learning the actual instrument. 9 of 9 people found the following review helpful. Could be better... By Donald G. Hicks If "Best of the Beatles for Violin" had Guitar Chords written for accompaniment purposes, it would be a much better book. Also, I've found a few things, that I have my students play differently from what is written. But, all in all, it's not bad. Just a bit disappointed that it's not great. Because it could be with some minor changes.

A great collection of 92 Beatles tunes arranged as instrumental solos. Includes: Across the Universe All My Loving All You Need Is Love Blackbird Can't Buy Me Love Eleanor Rigby Golden Slumbers A Hard Day's Night Help! Here Comes the Sun Hey Jude I Want to Hold Your Hand If I Fell In My Life Let It Be The Long and Winding Road Revolution She Loves You Ticket to Ride Twist and Shout Yellow Submarine Yesterday and dozens more!
