Doug Batchelor : The Book of Amazing Facts Volume 2 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Book of Amazing Facts Volume 2:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Extremely interesting and eaily relatable. By R. Zielfelder I really enjoyed this book of facts. The author also related the unique facts that surround us in this world with our relationship with God. Well put together and easy to understand. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. I Love the part 2 edition!By Ican'tbelieveit'snotbutterI bought both books (Part I II) for my son, and we both love it. This book is a summary of history, science, and mankind associated with the holy scriptures. I love the way the author is blessed to combine both. My son and I both enjoy reading it and sharing our thoughts about it. This is a good way to learn scriptures and to do group studies about nature, mankind and God's intervention on planet earth. Beautifully, worded. :)))2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. The Book of Amazing Facts Volume 2By M. HuffVery informative read. Entertaining yet at the same time making you think about God the bible. The only downside was it repeated several bible verses.

Do you know... ..that you can buy dirt-cheap real-estate on the moon? ...what version of the "Good Book" has the dubious distinction of being labeled the "Wicked Bible"? ...which bug's innards colors some of your favorite foods and drinks? ...what Noah and plastic have in common? Are you a curious person? Do you like to mesmerize your family and friends with tales of astonishing world wonders and stories of incredible people? Well, Pastor Doug Batchelor certainly does, and he has been using historical, scientific, and other intriguing facts in print and on the airwaves to explain God's word in a way that anyone can understand. Now in this second volume of The Book of Amazing Facts, you'll find even more surprising and obscure trivia that you can use to share the gospel in a unique light. Whether you have a sermon to prepare or just want to kill some time, open up this book and you'll find a world of amazing facts that offers a whole new way to illustrate God's love and truth.

About the AuthorAt the age of 16 Doug Batchelor was engrossed in a life of money crime, and drugs when he began a search for purpose and happiness that ended in a remote mountain cave, where he found a Bible! Today Doug is Senior Pastor of a large church in Sacramento and also president of Amazing Facts, and evangelistic ministry. Thousands are blessed around the world through his radio and television broadcasts. Other books Doug has written include To See the King: Seven Steps to Salvation, and How to Survive and Thrive in Church.
