In fact, only LORENZ HART and JOHNNY MERCER could really compete with him. Like them, his lyrics are fun to read and are often cynical to say the least. It is true that COLE if you except TRUE LOVE, written for his wife LINDA didn't write many straight love songs, but isn't that the reason we still love him today?. Only COLE PORTER could write a naughty show like NYMPH ERRANT and a song like LOVE FOR SALE that could not be played on radio back then. His last show was a television musical called ALLADIN. For the remaining years of his life, he became a recluse after losing his wife and his legs, the aftermath of a terrible riding accident in 1937. Wondrous By Gorco The best by the best.

This work contains the complete body of lyrics by Cole Porter, comprising 800 songs, more than half of which were previously unpublished. These lyrics demonstrate Porter's artistic development and, through their wit and jaunty sangfroid, tell something of the times in which he flourished.
